

Ascot Business Park

A multi building development consisting of Industrial units, Commercial units and high quality Office units. A combination of High efficiency VRF ASHP air to air fan coil systems and split system heat pumps are used throughout in conjunction. Air to water heat pump boiler is also used providing domestic hot water and low level heat to radiators in Reception areas on the smaller Office units.

