

Thame Football Club

New football stadium development incorporating ASHP boiler serving underfloor heating together with air to air fan coil units on a common system.

Hot water is generated by solar thermal in conjunction with high efficiency gas fired water heaters

Ventilation to all areas is by MVHR ducted heat recovery units.

